THE END OF AN ERA

DR. ROBERT F. HARRINGTON
Superintendent, New Orleans District

The sweep of the events of history has finally brought us to this place and time. The time is marked by the proximity of merger with Annual Conference A, a conference that has been working in organized relationship since 1845. In that time, Methodist history has witnessed the great schism in the church in 1845 when the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, officially separated, the Methodist Protestant Church having gone its way fifteen years earlier in 1830.

In 1939 a Plan of Union was adopted by 900 delegates representing these three major branches of Methodism in Kansas City, Mo. Six regional Jurisdictions were formed which, under directives from the General Conference, would carry forward much of the work of the church, including the election of bishops. Of course the sixth Jurisdiction was primarily the Jurisdiction for Black Methodists and overlapped some parts of the other five Jurisdictions. This made for much controversy and some bitterness.

The General Conference of 1968 legally abolished the Central Jurisdiction, decreeing that all conferences of that Jurisdiction should be merged with annual conferences in their geographic areas by 1972.

Louisiana Methodists, black and white, are busily addressing themselves to this task, as they look forward to meeting in Shreveport May 31-June 4, 1971. Black Methodists "are celebrating the end of an era." That is what we are doing here today. Marching Black Methodists, in pageantry and district competition, ring down the curtain on the old as we face the new—merger of Conferences A and B, forming the new Louisiana Conference of the United Methodist Church.

In this spirit, both the clergy and laity of the New Orleans District, beginning with Slidell in the east and stretching westward to Lafayette in the west, welcome you to share in the occasion that has been arranged for your fellowship and enjoyment.

As we pray God's choicest blessings upon you, our friends, we also solicit from you your prayers and best wishes that the venture which we are about to undertake will be rich and spiritually rewarding, and that the God of us all will smile at the prospect of the Kingdom of God approaching closer to the reality which Jesus Christ, our Saviour set in his prayer of intercession: "that they may be one . . ."

What Has Happened to the 1970 Dillard Graduating Class?

Data is not yet available on all of the graduates of last year, but on the basis of information gathered on 146 of them, the following review is highly significant:

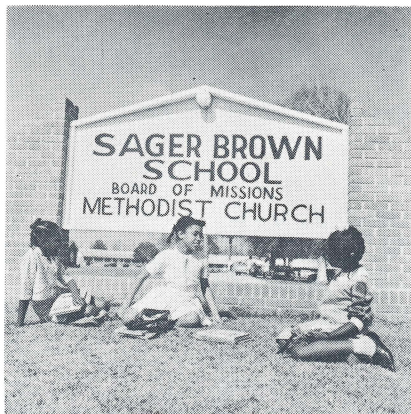

- 48 went into teaching, 34 in Louisiana and 14 in other states. Those in Louisiana are earning an average salary of $6,665 and those teaching in other states at an average salary of $9,375.
- 21 went into nursing, earning an average salary of $8,435.
- 13 went into business fields, at an average salary of $7,140.
- 10 are with Government agencies at an average salary of $8,402.
- 35 are in graduate and professional schools, including Stanford, University of Pennsylvania, University of Chicago, Tulane, L.S.U., Howard, Columbia, Notre Dame, and the Universities of Michigan, Wisconsin and Indiana to name but a few.
- 5 are in military service.
- Others are in miscellaneous fields, ranging from the ministry and social work in the professions to airline stewardess in the non-professional.

This survey clearly validates Dillard's dedication "to the development of men and women to live a good life, make a good living and to be responsible citizens."

In Appreciation of Our Heritage

Had there been no Negroes here, had there been no darkness at all, this would be a pale and a lonely land.

No Negroes?

What would we sing?

No darkness?

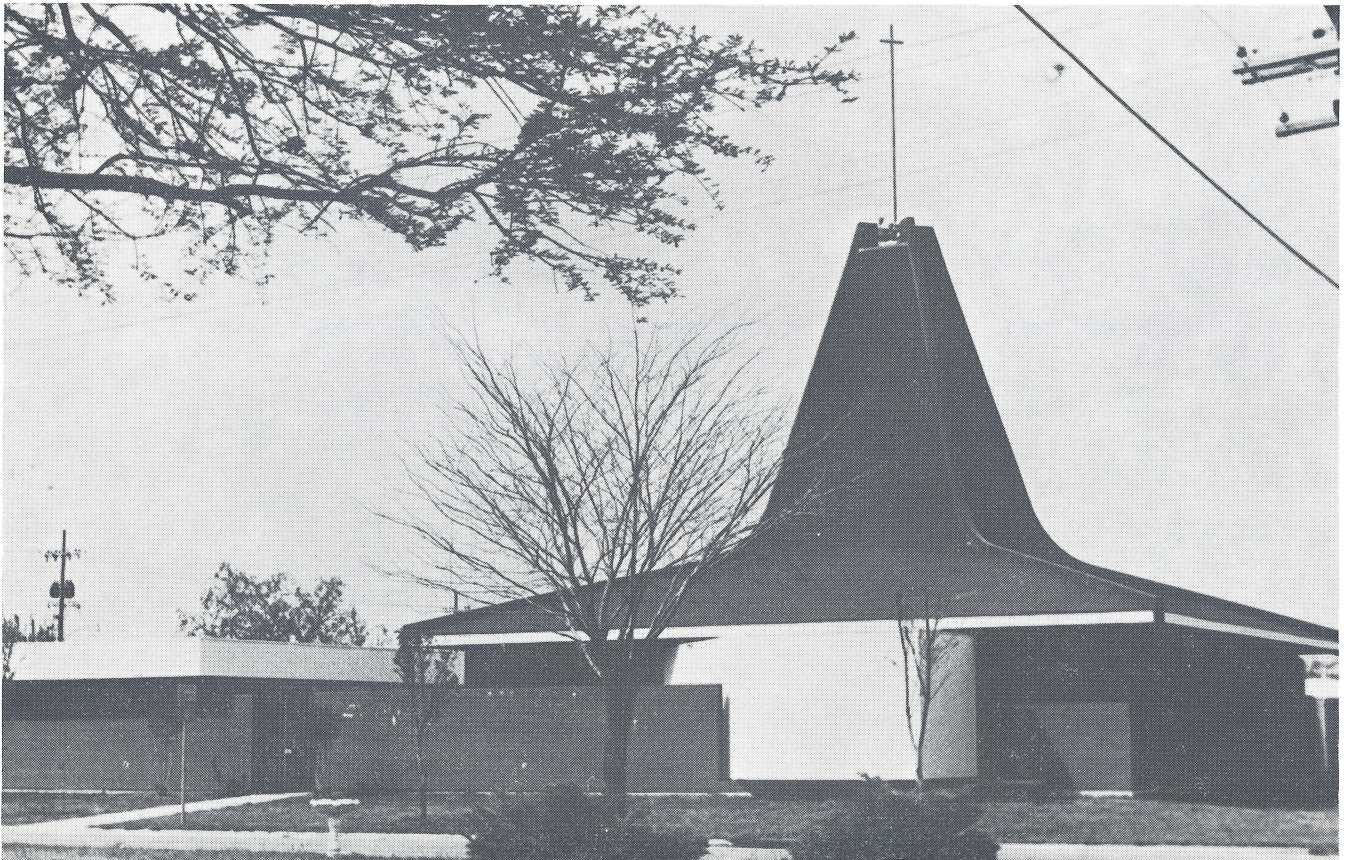

What would we dance?

No blackness?

What would we fear? How would we experience the boundaries and the whiteness of our lives?

This is not now, nor has it ever been, a white country. More than ever today, we need to remember the contributions of Negroes, and the black and white roots in the subsoil of our lives. For make no mistake about it: We cannot understand ourselves if we do not understand the symbolic darkness within and the literal darkness without.

As we "Celebrate the End of an Era." We now end a very significant and productive era. History, I am sure, will record many achievements and Christian endeavors, which have been ours in spite of limited resources and diversified handicaps.

REV. BERNELL BELL, Minister

About The Program

This afternoon's presentation is an invitation to our audience to celebrate with us the "End of an Era" for Black Methodists and the "Dawn of a New Day" for all Methodists. We will turn back the pages of history. Narration, music, pantomime and other vivid portrayal will trace the journey of "Marching Black Methodists" from the occasion of the organization of the Mississippi Mission Conference in 1865, through the post Civil War period, with emphasis upon the first one hundred years.

Hopefully, an appreciation of our heritage will become evident as our story unfolds revealing the patience, the determination, the faith, and the hope of those early pilgrims.

The final part points us hopefully to the steady march forward in the days ahead. The words of James Weldon Johnson will become more meaningful when he sang

*Facing the rising sun
Of our new day begun
Let us march on
Till victory is won!*
